

Peace Corps House

CONTENTS

I.

1. A Concept Paper
2. Job Description, Executive Director, five pages

II.

3. Letters of Support:
 - Glenn Blumhorst, National Peace Corps Association (NPCA)
 - Chris Robinson, Returned Peace Corps Volunteers of Washington, D.C.
 - Rick Netti, Neighborhood House, Portland, Oregon
 - International Federation of Settlements & Neighborhood Centers
 - Craig Schwinck, RPCV organizer of proposed Peace Corps Café
 - John Coyne, RPCV, founder Peace Corps Worldwide

III.

4. Photographs of Anacostia and settlement houses

IV.

5. History of Ward 8
6. D.C. Office of Planning Initiatives
7. Opportunities in St. Elizabeths East
8. GSA head urges Congress to fully fund St. Elizabeths East

V.

9. About the Press Café, Batumi, Georgia, a PCV's project, 2010-2012
10. Short bio of Jane Addams, 1860-1935
11. Twenty Years at Hull-House by Jane Addams
12. Portland Neighborhood House (since 1905)
13. List of members of the International Federation of Settlements (IFS)
14. On a Peace Corps Institute as a Skunkworks
15. About core groups and why they are essential
16. What is a community design charrette?

VI.

17. TVA's Energy Conservation & Solar Institute
18. Letter: The East Ninth Street Community Development Corporation
19. Letter from John Garamendi, Lieutenant Governor, California
20. "Would a 'War on Alcoholism' work on this Reservation"
Confederated Umatilla Journal, December 2012
21. About Tom Hebert